

No need for this. This might kill off smaller marginal AM broadcasters, who have resorted to voice tracking, satellite programming, farming out this/that. This will be as popular as "FM quad" or the "Expanded AM band." Leave well enough alone!